The Big Race.

The great race is over. At least, what we call a great race. The crowd was large and enthusiastic, although the distance was but four hundred yards, there was some keen running, and both parties felt as exultant over it as if it had been a four mile heat. This race, between the Sorrel and the Gray, has been talked of for some time. It was really a test race. Both parties wanted to try the speed of their respective horses, inasmuch as there had been considerable talk about what they could do. If we do live out in the brush and seldom get to see a good horse race and the time in which it was made to-day, satisfies us that the boys will have to go beyond Hancock and Daviess counties to get up something that can get away with our time. We don't pretend to make any boast about Hancock and Daviess county's race, stock; we think it is third or fourth class in that line but occasionally we can see a good one. The little Gray is said to be the best in this part of Kentucky. Three hundred yards is her regular distance, and her owner challenges anything that distance. Last Fall they brought her up here and beat Black Hawk. This time they came and we put it on to 'em bad. We sent them a proposition which they accepted. They came up in good time. They came up to see, of course, to go away victorious. They staked all on the little Gray, believing there was nothing up here in the brush that could beat him. But there was a slight mistake, the little Sorrel is a good one. We will have to go against anything in the State a half a mile. The race was run at four o'clock, P. M., the Sorrel running in the lead all along. There was a good deal of money changed hands, Hancock men betting two to one on the Gray.

The girls in Holt's Bottom are, we should say in order to be somewhat circumstantial, in the language with proper dignity and a tone sufficient to be clearly understood at the same time with due respect to all classes and persons hereunto mentioned, the contrary notwithstanding the young ladies in Maidville have become very indignant at the report circulated by some unscrupulous wretch, to the effect that the name of that place had been changed and that they were unanimous in selecting a branch of ungodly nomenclature.

A. WITT & CO., keep on hand a full line of Dry Goods, Groceries, Notions of every description, Gent's Furnishing Goods, Gentle Underwear, Ladies Dress Goods of every variety and description, Ladies' Shoes, side and front lace, finest the Market can afford, Cheap for Cash.

The fair under its present management can hardly be otherwise than a grand success. The time has been extended so as to give the farmer ample time to prepare stock and to get their tobacco housed and other business of the farm so arranged that they can spare a few days away from home. Heretofore, it has always been in the consequence of the year for the farmers, and consequently a slim attendance was the result. It will begin October the 22nd.

Messrs. Bowmer & Hamblen, of Cloverport, own a gray horse that is so stubborn he will not face a newly painted delivery wagon.

MRS. A. J. LENNIN has just received a nice Stock of Ladies', Misses' and Children's Shoes, which she is selling very low for Cash.

BEARD & BEELER are receiving a splendid stock of Boots and Shoes, directly from the Eastern Factories.

Wm. K. Barnes and wife have returned from Union Star and stopping at McGill's. Our base ball club will play a big game at the fair.

The Victor Sewing Machine is the "BOSS." MRS. A. J. LENNIN can furnish you one very cheap.

A. WITT & CO. have Boots and Shoes of the very best quality and at your own Price.

Nicholas Mattingly received a pistol wound in his thigh last Saturday on the fair grounds by an accidental shot from a pistol which he was carrying in his pocket.

Sewing Machine Oil, Needles and all attachments for any Machine, at MRS. A. J. LENNIN'S.

BEARD & BEELER sell goods at Small Profit, for Cash or exchange for Produce.

The new coroner, Brumfield, of Union Star, in company with his old dog Watch, held a post mortem over three dead sheep one day last week. Harvey wanted to get his hand in.

The New Victor Sewing Machines, ranging from $27 to $60, at MRS. A. J. LENNIN'S.

Work will commence on Hook's new flouring mill this week, when completed it will be second to none in the county.

Obituary.

Lewis, son of Andrew and N. B. Mooreman, was born November 5th, 1836. Professed religion and joined the Baptist church in 1856, in which he lived a consistent member.

He was very happily married to Miss A. M. Robertson, January 1st, 1857, and died in Cloverport, Ky., September 9th, 1878. The highest eulogy of man, is when his own actions speak in praise. This being the case with our brother, Lewis Mooreman, there is but little left for us to say. There is but one opinion expressed relative to him and that is, he was a christian and a gentleman. He died of typhoid fever with which he suffered long, but with perfect christian fortitude. His faith in Christ and the future happiness of the christian was firm and unshaken.

No man in his church or in the community will be missed more or lamented than Lewis Mooreman. He was buried with Masonic honors, and the procession of this order and of bereaved friends and relatives, was one of the largest ever formed in Cloverport.

WHEREAS, An All Wise Providence has been pleased to call away his earthly labor, our beloved brother Lewis Mooreman, of Cloverport Lodge, No. 133, of F. A. A. M., and

WHEREAS, We deem so and an event a fitting occasion for us to express our appreciation of his noble life and character, therefore, be it,

Resolved, That in the death of our brother his family has lost a faithful and devoted husband and a kind and indulgent father, the church a true and faithful member, the Masonic fraternity an efficient and valuable worker, and the community at large a useful, law-abiding and christian citizen.

Resolved, That while we are deeply pained to have our dear brother taken from us, while we fully appreciate the loss of one who so diligently and punctually performed his duties in all the various relations of life, we feel that in that life we are furnished with a bright example ever to be cherished by us in the highest degree worthy of our admiration and imitation.

Resolved, That we tender our sincere sympathy and condolence to his bereaved family, and ask them to try to recognize in his taking away the visitation of that mysterious and inscrutable Providence whose ways are not as our ways, who hath said, "Blessed are they that mourn for they shall be comforted," and who doeth all things well; and we would comfort them with the hope that, though lost to us here, he has passed over to the enjoyment of the rewards of a life spent in christian faith and practice.

Resolved, That in respect to the memory of our brother we wear the usual badge of mourning for 30 days.

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be spread upon the minutes of our Lodge, and a copy furnished his family and the BRECKENRIDGE NEWS and Western Recorder, with a request for their publication.

J. L. EMMERTON, T. C. DOWELL, W. B. WHITE, By order of the W. M. W. G. SMART, Secretary.

At a meeting held at the Cloverport High School, Sept. 10th, 1878, composed of the officers and students of the school, the following resolutions of respect for the memory of the late Lewis Mooreman, were offered and adopted:

WHEREAS, It has pleased an Omnipotent Providence to take from our midst our esteemed friend and neighbor, Lewis Mooreman. Therefore be it, Resolved:

First—That we, the officers and students of the Cloverport High School, do receive with deep regret the sad tidings of his death.

Second—That in his death the community has lost a good citizen and kind neighbor; the school, a warm friend and supporter.

Third—That in respect to the memory of the deceased we will suspend academic duties this afternoon, that we may attend his funeral services.

Fourth—That a copy of these resolutions be sent to the family of the deceased and to the office of the BRECKENRIDGE NEWS for publication.

J. E. HARRIS, P. E. HARRIS, J. M. BROWN, J. W. VANCE, T. G. ARKOLD, L. H. HENRY, Committee.

EVERY BLENDISH ON BEAUTY

is quickly removed by Dr. T. FELIX GORRAUD'S Oriental Cream, or Oriental Balm. The Oriental Cream is not a cheap clap-net paint to bedaub skin with redolent hues and leave the complexion ruined. It is a delightful artistic lotion the use of which can not be detected, and which removes every blemish instantly.

The Oriental Cream has for many years been to fashionable ladies in Europe and America "the Secret of Beauty." Its effects are immediate, giving at once a lovely like that, a soft, brilliant, and natural complexion, of wondrous delicacy and dazzling beauty. See to it that you get the genuine ORIENTAL CREAM, bearing the signature of Dr. T. FELIX GORRAUD, the inventor. Look out for imitations partly sold in Europe and America. Address of the Proprietor, Madame M. B. T. GORRAUD, 48 Bond St., New York.
